

I am currently a subscriber to XM radio and it has been one of the best things I've ever done. Although I use XM radio I'm not part of a region that hosts traffic and weather. Although I'm not able to enjoy this feature I'm disturbed that government agencies are trying to bring a closure to this feature for those areas that do benefit from it. Thanks for taking my opinion into consideration.